ELLA BAKER CENTER

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES
Since first organizing in 1996, the Ella Baker Center community has grown thanks to strong, thoughtful community leaders. Together we have built safer communities while fighting for the rights of all.

I’ve grown alongside EBC. I began working to restore the rights of people who were impacted by the criminal legal system at age 15. Since then, I’ve led many successful campaigns – grown from the wisdom of those that came before us and strategic collaboration between those of us in the movement.

As the next generation of community organizers build on past victories, there is much to be learned from the leaders who came before us and those fighting alongside us. When you sponsor Marlene’s Movement Initiative, you are directly investing in new leadership, space for reflection and learnings, and collaborations of currently and formerly incarcerated organizers.

These organizers continue EBC’s mission of divesting resources from systems of harm and into solutions generated by Black, Brown, Indigenous and low-income communities of color. This ongoing work, and the shifting challenges that accompany it, will require us to build our knowledge while evolving to meet the moment.

There is a need for strengthened infrastructure, new ways of strategizing, and deep healing. By learning from the past, we can go even further in the future. You have the opportunity to be a leader in fueling this next step in the movement. I hope you will join us.

With appreciation,
